

Protect Our Sacred Water

Keynote Speakers – Tribal Water in the Future, Water as Sacred, History of Water in California, and Tribal Water Rights

Issues and Positions Sessions

- 1. Rivers, Streams, Dams, and Fish – river restoration, dam removal and relicensing, and fisheries
- 2. Watersheds – water quality, local water districts, and groundwater, forest, fire, and flood management
- 3. Tribal Water Rights in California
- 4. Institutions/Legal/Agencies – Tribal access to State bond funding, statewide consultation policy, a State Office of Indian Affairs, Tribal involvement in State and Regional Water Planning

Evening Banquet and Tribal Water Stories

Discussion of Solutions and Next Steps with Tribal, State, and Federal Government Officials – explore common interests, discuss policy issues, and identify solutions with agencies and programs responsible for managing water resources in California

Roadmap for Addressing Tribal Water Issues in California

Exhibits – the Tribal Water Stories Project, opportunities for training and funding, and other exhibits will be on display throughout both days

Logo design by mike rodriguez (La Jolla Band of Mission Indians)

mike rodriguez '09

2009 California Tribal Water Summit

November 4th & 5th Radisson Hotel, 500 Leisure Lane, Sacramento 95815

To register on-line go to www.cce.csus.edu/CTWS09. To register by mail or fax, please contact Barbara Cross at (916) 653-5150, or bcross@water.ca.gov. All Summit materials will be posted to www.WaterPlan.water.ca.gov/tribal2.